

America First Show Weekly Report

Week of 06/14/21

This report presents a summary of viewership and chat engagement of America First for the week of June 14th, 2021. Viewership and chat engagement for this week was entirely typical, with audience sizes increasing through mid-week, and tapering off closer to the weekend, and chat frequencies showing the reverse trend, with engagement peaking during Monday and Friday nights' shows, and experiencing a visible dip mid-week. As audience behavior showed no noticeable deviation from what is typical, this week's report is kept brief.
